Synopsis Books:

Emma and Andrew are two sad little ghosts. They love Christmas, but Santa totally missed their house last year. Andrew assures his little sis that Santa will not miss their house again. Meanwhile, Santa has his own issues to deal with. Back at the Ghostly house, Andrew has a great idea. Its time for the little Ghostlys to get to work! Oh no! Its really starting to snow! Will Santa break their little ghostly hearts again? Look for a surprise guest to come to the rescue. Brilliantly illustrated by Ed Luterio this Christmas book is sure to delight your little ones with a spooky side. With colorful holiday images and rhyming prose that sings off the page, your children will want you to read this delightfully different Christmas story over and over again! Extras Inside: Make Emma's hot cocoa and learn how to make sparkly spiders for your tree. Don't forget to make your Christmas list for Santa!
