Synopsis Books:

In depression torn America two very different men, each running from their own personal demons, are thrown together on an epic cross country journey. From squatters camp to five star hotel, from brothels to speakeasies follow Jack and Daniel as they struggle to accept their own sexuality and strong need for each other. Readers will immediately time-travel back to an exotic historical epoch. What awaits them is a literary experience filled with drama, romance, and adventure.
