Synopsis Books:

Following up on her successful Life Is a Verb, and in the tradition of Julia Camerons The Artists Way, Patti Digh here presents a book that leads readers by both heart and head to acknowledge, reinforce, and use their own creative spirit. Creative Is a Verb is equally a book for people who say, Im not creative or Im just a dabbler or Im an artist.

Thirty-three related essays are organized around six overarching themes that guide readers beyond the fear of creativity to embrace their inner artist. As the author says, "If you're alive, you're creative." Among the themes: Be Ordinary, See More, Get Present," and Catch Fire. Each essay is followed by creative exercises for the reader, allowing her to apply the principles of each story to her own life.

Original artwork contributed by artist/followers of the authors blog 37days enhance each essay.
