Synopsis Books:

Ever fallen for the wrong guy or in with the wrong people? When translator Ellah Flanders lands up in southern Brazil she finds shes falling for a guy as shes never fallen before. Hes part of a seductive, heady crowd that become her new circle of friends in the exotic Germanic town of Lansburg, a place where people like to parr-tay. But are this mans charms as questionable as the company he keeps?

According to some voices they are. She refuses to listen. Then things turn dark, and Ellah Flanders, for the first time in her privileged existence, is forced to taste the seedy side of life. Painfully she realises that the people in this prosperous town are not only in denial about the evils of its past but also the menace of its present. The question is: is she right in her unwavering belief of the charismatic Mr Knight? For what shes prepared to do for him, shed better be.
