Synopsis Books:

False Prophet? is a rant against the unfairness of the legal system. It's also the story of love lost and found, murder, conspiracy and political intrigue.

Attorney Jack Ross loses his soul and his wife. He finds redemption by litigating the case of an African-American preacher and prophet. Jack's existential crisis almost overwhelms him. He is disgusted by the law, his partner is an alcoholic, and his wife demands they have a baby and then leaves him.

But Jack is a fighter. With the help of an arm-breaking buddy and a hot young reporter, Jack sets out to right the wrongs done to his prophet-client.
