Synopsis Books:

Having a Heart for God is a daily devotional for busy Christian adults seeking to be inspired by Gods word on a daily basis while learning about the Bible. The devotionals entries are best of selections taken from the successful One Minute Bible Study e-mail devotional already popular with thousands of readers. Written in a chronological 365-day format, each devotional contains a Scripture reading, explanation/application, reflection question for the reader to ponder, and a relevant quote from a prominent source. The goal of the OMBS is to educate men and women on the biblical principles and strategies that can be used daily. Each study is thoughtfully researched and broken down into bite-size, inspirational and applicable biblical truth. What sets the OMBS apart is that readers will be both educated about the Bible and inspired by Gods Word daily. The result will be more peace, more purpose and more connection to Gods will for your life. "Tracy Fox loves God and loves to help people engage with Him through His Word, pretty winning combo if you ask me!" - Lisa Harper, Author and Women of Faith Speaker
