Synopsis Books:

Over 23 million viewers tune in each week to this network TV show, "Touched by an Angel." Now readers can get to know angels Monica and Tess in a touching Christmas novel based on one of the most beloved stories of the series. On Christmas eve, Monica comforts a developmentally disabled boy who blames himself for his brother's disappearance in a blizzard. But a tale of Mark Twain, lost faith, and a surprise ending help young Joey understand that the gift of Christmas is the gift of believing, even in our darkest hours. This high quality gift book edition includes black and white and full color pictures from the television episode.
