Synopsis Books:

A high school girl has the power to see glimpses of the future. Now she must learn how to live in a world of people "blindfolded" to everything but the present.

Is Kanade's special ability a gift - or a curse?

Sometimes high school student tsuka Kanade sees glimpses of a person's future. But when she glimpses an unfortunate incident coming, can she - should she - change it? New classmate Nait Ar can see a person's past. Are these teen seers of the past and the future made for each other? And who is right, Ar with his "hands off" policy about meddling in people's lives or Kanade, whose more proactive stance has already had unhappy consequences?

This volume also contains two stories by the author, "After the Festival" and "The Mistaken Man".
