Synopsis Books:

Rishabh the rat and Shashee the spider are quite happy with the way they are: rummaging around in Venkat Thathas wonderful, musty, dusty, rare herbs shop. Until, that is, they stumble upon a magical powder and find themselves transformed into human children.

Its not easy being a kid: theres school, and homework, wearing clothes and yuk! having to use soap but even worse, their very home and the entire city are under threat from an evil moneylender and property dealer known as the Shark.

Can Rishabh solve the cryptic clues that lead to King Kempe Gowdas fabulous treasure before the Shark can get to it? Will the vermin survive Ajjis herbal pesticide attack? Will Shashee be able to spin her way out of this tangled web of intrigue?

With the help of other children, friendly cockroaches, cheeky mosquitoes, a very Big Bandicoot and a platoon of plucky rodents, they set out to prove that no problem is too big even for the smallest of creatures.

These are exciting times for children, with fiction such as Monideepa Sahus Riddle of the Seventh Stone a unique take on ordinary events and creatures that we take so much for granted, things that get extraordinary in her gifted hands.

Shreekumar Varma
