Synopsis Books:

Winner of the Pen Oakland/Josephine Miles Literary Award, The Concrete Rivers poems illuminate the gritty idiosyncrasies of immigrant life in urban barrios spanning Los Angeles to Chicago to Harlem. Luis J. Rodríguez lends powerful voices to those struggling to keep the gas on, to find work, and to keep love. Populated by a vibrant cast of characters, ranging from the drugged, to the eccentric, to the heartbroken, Rodríguez poems protest capitalism, violence, and exploitation while reveling in the potential of compassion.
