Synopsis Books:

35th Conference of the American Italian Historical Association . "Italian Americans and World War II, ' explores many facets of the dynamic period of the 1940s and the consequences of war and peace. Scholars within AIHA and outside the academy have been slow to recognize the significance of World War II, now recognized as a seminal event in Italian-American life and culture. . . . "This volume is dedicated to all Italian Americans who lived and died, fought and prayed during World War II." - Gary R. Mormino, Frank E. Duckwall Professor of Florida Studies, University of South Florida, St. Petersburg
